MRS WILBUR G MAXWELL
The Former Miss Dorothy Anne Ellis

Wed In Double-Ring Ceremony

Miss Dorothy Anne Ellis became the bride of the Reverend Wilbur G. Maxwell on Sunday afternoon, December 20, in a four o'clock ceremony.

The Reverend Samuel Thomas pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Lancaster, heard the couple's vows in a double ring ceremony at Rich Hill Baptist Church, where a reception followed.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira B. Ellis of Route 2, Heath Springs, S. C. and a graduate of Campbell College. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Maxwell of Pamplin, Va. A graduate of Emory and Henry University and the Union Theological Seminary, he received his M. A. degree from the Presbyterian School of Christian Education in Richmond, Va.

He is a stated supply minister and Director of Children's Education in Bethel Presbytery.

Both are members of the faculty in the Lancaster City School System and will make their home in Lancaster.

The Ceremony

In the background were two seven-branched candelabra entwined with ivy and palm branches and holding lighted tapers. Altar arrangements were of white chrysanthemums and gladioli.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Ellis, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her gown was identical to that of the honor attendant as were the bridemaids: Miss Julie Mize of Williamson, a cousin of the bride; Miss Janet Pressley, of Monroe, N. C, and Miss Peggy Love of Rock Hill.

Each carried a white poinsettia tied with green velvet ribbon and wore a headpiece of bows.

Flower girl was Hope Sims.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Ellis wore a street length dress with lace coat in gold and matching accessories. Her corsage was of yellow rosebuds. Mrs. Vickie Stokes of Lancaster kept the register.

Reception

Immediately after the ceremony, a reception was held in the social hall of the church.

Assisting the couple with receiving were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ellis of Heath Springs. Directing guests to the refreshment table were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Edwards, Red Springs, N. C. Good-byes were said by Mr. and Mrs. John Mize of Williamston. Family pews were decorated with white satin streamers.

Wedding music was presented by Miss Darlene Hinson, organist and Miss Cherry Killian, vocalist of Hamlet, N. C., a cousin of the bride.

The Bride

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. She wore a formal gown in candlelight peau de soie and alencon lace. The empire bodice with round neckline was overlaid with lace and the lace sleeves tapered into points. Her chapel length train, also overlaid in lace, was attached to the bodice. Her veil of lace was held with a cabbage rose. She carried a white Bible laced with bridal net and topped with red rose buds.

Attendants

Best man was Dr. Thomas Dickson, veterinarian of York. Ushers and groomsmen were Earl Edwards of Red Springs, N. C., David Smith, Greer; Bo Mize of Williamston, a cousin of the bride; Morris Glenn and Jim Neal of York, S. C.

Mrs. Jimmy Sims of Rock Hill was matron of honor. She wore a formal gown of moss green velvet fashioned on princess lines with long sleeves and blending a mint green satin sashes tied to the side.

The table was decorated with an arrangement of greenery and white gladioli and mums with white carnations. Silver candelabra held green candles.

Serving punch, cake squares, mints and nuts were Mrs. Tommy Mullis, Miss Brenda Ellis of Heath Springs, Mrs. Douglas Frick and Mrs. Sheila Werner of Lancaster.

For their wedding trip the bride wore a light blue wool dress with coat to match and accessories. Her corsage of red roses was lifted from her bridal bouquet.

Southall-Irby Nuptials Held

The wedding of Mrs. Shirley Scott Irby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henry Scott of Brookneal, and Wesley Earl Southall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Carter Southall of Pamplin, took place Saturday, January 16th, at 2 o'clock in the home of the bride's parents.

The Rev. Omar Burnette of Nathalie officiated the double ring ceremony. Mr. Heno C. Lacks, Jr. of Charlotte Court House, provided a program of nuptial music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of candlelight satin, designed by her mother and trimmed with white French lace. Her veil was of matching candlelight illusion net with daisy pedals.

Mrs. Edward Scott of Brookneal, sister-in-law of the bride was matron of honor. Her gown was of yellow crepe with bodice trimmed in white lace. Her head piece was of matching nylon net with streamers attached to a large bow. Miss Elizabeth Irby was flower girl for her mother. Her dress was of mint green with yellow velvet sash.

Mr. Larry Whitehead of Pamplin served as best man. Miss Beverley Southall was ring bearer for her father. Her dress was of mint green with a yellow velvet sash.

After the ceremony, a reception was held in the dining room of the bride's parents.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will live at Charlotte Court House where the groom is employed by the Charlotte County School Board.

Rehearsal Party Fetes Bridal Couple In S.C.

Immediately after the rehearsal of their wedding, Miss Dorothy Anne Ellis and the Reverend Wilbur Maxwell were guests of honor for a party and cake cutting given by the bride's aunts, Mrs. R. C. Killian, Hamlet, N. C. and Mrs. John Mize, Williamston, S. C.

Approximately 37 relatives, friends and members of the wedding party attended the event at the home of the bride in Heath Springs, S. C. Bridal colors of green and white were featured in the decorations.

The refreshment table was covered with a green lace cloth and held a candleabrum with four lighted white candles. Center of attraction was a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom.

After the couple cut the traditional first slice, cake was served to the guests with nuts, mints and punch.

During the evening, the couple presented gifts to their attendants.
